Tara co-founded Paragon International Insurance Brokers Ltd in 1996, and as CEO is responsible for all operations of the firm. This has included the expansion of the company to its present position, as a leading provider of insurance services for a large number of global organisations.

Leading Paragon's Broking practice, Tara's experience is focussed on the Professional Liability market, serving many of the world's leading professional service firms to include Fortune 1000 Companies, AMLAW Top 100 law firms, Engineering News Record Top 100 design firms and many of the fastest growing Technology Companies.

Tara is well known within the insurance marketplace for specialising in negotiating transactions on behalf of several key architects and engineers in the world. Her experience in this area stretches over 25 years and includes working with the leading insurers in Lloyd's, Europe, Bermuda and the United States.

Tara negotiates specialist insurance and risk management programs with worldwide insurers to provide E&O, D&O and associated Management Liability coverages on behalf of our clients, building on over 25 years of experience operating in the Lloyd's, European, Bermudian and US insurer marketplace.

Prior to establishing Paragon, Tara was a Divisional Director at Willis Faber & Dumas.
